Music of the week

'Heaven Knows I'm Miserable Now' by The Smiths

The Smiths are a British 80s band, who all have links with the local area. They are considered to be one of the most influential British bands ever. Morrissey can sometimes be found in Waitrose in Broadheath!

Key word of the week

Indie Music

The term indie originally meant music that was produced and released on independent record labels. It is now used to describe a genre of music, mainly British guitar based rock, which would have traditionally been released on these independent labels.
